Dana's Shear Expressions & The
Mulberry Tree

Since the doors to her business first opened in 1993, Dana Lewis has been offering quality hair care and products for clients of the big country from her location at 202 west 8th street. Shear Expressions offers a warm and friendly environment where it's hard not to notice Dana's love for her customers as well as her hometown. Shear Expressions provides a full service hair care experience from men's and children's haircuts to full service styling for even the most discriminating of tastes. In recent years, with the help of her mother Twila Lee, the business has grown to offer unique and tasteful home décor gifts and products to cheer up a variety of home styles that are found in north central Texas. Cookbooks, table top decorations, candles, and home accents are just a few of the things you can find at the Mulberry Tree. If it's been a while since you stopped in, take a minute to stop and talk, enjoy a cup of coffee and visit about the Loboos.

Elect-A-Scrooge

Elect-A-Scrooge will be going on until Nov 20th so make sure to go by any or all of the following locations.

American State Bank, Crossties, Cisco Hardware & Supply, Plexus Healthcare. Voting is easy all you have to do is put your spare change in the container of your favorite Scrooge. Scrooge candidates are James Haferkamp with Brookshire's, Courtney Miller with Mary Kay Cosmetics and Walter Fairbanks with the Cisco Fire Dept. The one who collects the most money will be Scrooge and grand marshal of the annual lighted Christmas Parade Dec. 1st Special thanks to Fullen Motor Co. who will be providing both Scrooge and Santa with a ride during the parade.
