is in the process of producing your official Chamber of Commerce Membership Directory and Community Guide for 2010.

This will be a beautiful, color publication representing your community and promoting new residents and businesses. It will be packed full of useful information on your community: parks, schools, churches, history, businesses, community profile, calendar of events, and more. The publication will help your community and your business grow. It will be in circulation for 12 months, listing this important information. Distribution will be at your chamber, real estate offices, banks, and all advertisers.

You have the opportunity, as a chamber member, to advertise in this publication.

Ad rates include design and graphics work to personalize your ad. Ads are full color and may include your digital photographs. Ad rates are:

1/4 page $195.00

1/3 page $295.00

Full page $495.00

Limited availability includes: inside back, inside front, and back cover for $595.00.

We hope you participate in this publication in order to showcase your business. You can reply to this e-mail for immediate response or I will be following up with a phone call soon.
